First, I would like to thank all of you who continue to send more than the minimum subscription. Such generosity is very welcome.

Any one watching the recent BBC production of Ivanhoe would have seen in the credits; 'Standby Props - Tony Minnie'. Spooky eh, considering the recent discovery of Minney Moor adjacent to Conisbrough Castle and its influence on Scott's Ivanhoe.

I have left over for future issues The Times extracts, Somerset House entries and Minney details from Great Barford charity lists.

The release of R J Minney's 'A Place of Ones Own' on video was a pleasant surprize. It comes with a copy of the original poster advertising the film. Well worth getting if only to hang the A4 poster on the wall!

It seems that the computer/internet area of genealogy is growing at an amazing rate. Unfortunately I do not have a modem and so cannot 'surf the net'. If anyone does have access to the internet/world wide web I would be interested to know how many Minneys they could find, either from various databases or e-mail users. I am told that there is a Minney in the UK with a web site.

Moving on to my own database of Minney, this now stands at 7,450 entries. I have had some very successful searches on it recently for various people. If you want a copy then just send a disc to me. I will compress it down, scan it for viruses and send it back. All you have to do is insert disc and type 'Minney'. The database will extract itself onto your hard disc.

Many thanks to all of you who have sent articles in, I will use them all eventually .

Regards

Barrie Minney

Phyllis Minney

From Rosemary Minney

"I am writing to let you know of the death of my mother-in-law Phyllis Minney of 4 Sunny View, Yardley Hastings. Although she had only received the newsletter in the last couple of years she thoroughly enjoyed reading it. As my father-in-law and indeed all of us would like to continue to receive it could you please forward it in future to Maurice Minney."

I was sorry to hear that Phyllis had died. Sadly, I never met her although she did send me a couple of lively letters. My condolences to Maurice and his family.

Northampton River Tragedy

There is an entry at Somerset House, Wills Section for the death of Lois Maud Minney on 3rd August 1944 at Peachs Meadow, River Nene, Northampton. Rosemary Minney has very kindly spent some time at the Northampton Library researching copies of the Northampton Chronicle & Echo. The death of Lois appears in two editions of the paper, Friday August 4th and Saturday August 5th. These are the extracts;

Friday 4th August 1944

"Woman Found Floating"

The second death¹ was that of Mrs Lois Maud Minney (56) of 20 Agnes Road Northampton who was last seen at 11.15am when she left the house of Mrs Lilley 87 Cedar Road Northampton. Later, a nurse on holiday Miss Eileen Westbury of 78 Perry Street Northampton and her friend - a Czecho-Slovakian soldier - were walking along the riverbank downstream from Midsummer Meadow bathing pool when she saw a woman's hat, coat and handbag on the ground. Becoming curious she noticed an object floating in the river and realised it was a woman. She obtained help from a river warden and they recovered Mrs Minney's body at 2pm. An inquest will be held at the Borough Police Court tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

Saturday 5th August

"River Suicide of Worried Woman"

Evidence that she was simple minded, which had probably caused her to exaggerate her worries was given at the inquest at Northampton Borough Police Court today on Lois Maud Minney (56) a maid-companion of 7 Kingsland Gardens, Kingsthorpe whose body was found in the River Nene. She had been unemployed since July 7.

A verdict of suicide while her mind was unbalanced was entered by the Borough Coroner (Mr A J Darnell).

¹The newspaper article also dealt with the death of a 7 year old boy who drowned the same day further upstream.

Ralph Minney, painter and decorator of 33 Yardley Road, Denton brother of the dead woman said he had not seen his sister for 12 months. Elizabeth Rose Lewis of 20 Agnes Road Northampton said that Miss Minney had been employed at that address by the late Mrs Bachelor. When her employer died in July Miss Minney moved to Kingsthorpe. She was extremely worried about finding other employment. She seemed very depressed but perhaps this was more pronounced as she was rather simple minded.

Inspector Bishop said he applied artificial respiration without success.

Index records show that Lois' birth was registered in the March quarter 1888 at Hardingstone, Northants. Letters of Administration were granted to her brother Ralph in September 1946, after a two year delay. She left £574 15s 2d.

Attempted Murder of William Minney

Rosemary also tried to find details on the drowning of Charlotte Minney on 17th April 1855. She was unable to find an inquest entry in the newspaper but she did find the following report;

Northamptonshire Summer Assizes

"Our assizes commence with the opening of the commission on Tuesday next before Mr Justice Coleridge and the Hon Mr Justice Maule. The following prisoners are for trial on Wednesday:-

Hackleton¹ - Charles Smith (40) for shooting at William Minney, with intent to murder him."

I think the paper is dated Saturday July 7 1855(?). There are mentions elsewhere of the Crimean War and the death of Lord Raglan. As the assizes records are at the Public Record Office it would probably be easier to search later editions of this newspaper for the result of the hearing.

1881 Census Index for Middlesex

Sarah Minney has supplied photocopies of the above index. There were only 36 altogether for Minney and variants (Minnell not searched for yet) so I have listed them all. I have the original index

Minney Moor

Linda Waite and David Minney have both visited Minney Moor, Conisbrough and have sent photographs and reports.

I have obtained further information on the references to Minney Moor from the last newsletter.

Letter from the Principal Archivist, Doncaster;

"The reference to '1764 Glebe' means that at that date land called Minney Moor Close was part of lands belonging to the church. This office holds the records of St Peters Church, Conisbrough and Minney Moor was part of this parish. We do not know the origin of this information as these contain no records relating to glebe lands at this date, although Minney Moor Close may be mentioned in later documents.

The references from the Place Names of West Riding of Minning Moor Lands, Miney Moor Close 1840TA mean that the names are given on the Tithe Apportionment of that date. The 1840 date is probably a mistake as the only references held are in the 1858 TA (Archives ref P7/9/B3)."

Letter from Linda Peabody, professional researcher at Doncaster Record Office

"The references for Minney Moor in the 1858 TA;

	Occ Na	ame of Land	State	Quantity	Pay to vicar
326	Wm Lee Minny	Moor Plantation Wood	l 19 Perc	thes £00:00s:01d	1
327	Francis Ogley	Minny Moor Close	Grass	8a 2r 27p	£00:10s:06d

When all else fails check the complete Oxford Dictionary, it contains several references to Minnie and Minny, one to do with lambs and mother sheep. Could sheep have been kept on Minney Moor at lambing time?"

Linda Waite writes;

"I visited Minney Moor on 21st October on a beautiful sunny autumn day. I have also tracked down 'Photographs of Old Conisbrough' by June and Tony Greathead¹ 1990, reprinted 1996. In it there is an old photograph of the view from Minney Moor. I really enjoyed the day I spent there, it is a beautiful village built on steep slopes of the castle that dominates the surroundings. I can fully understand why Sir Walter Scott chose this castle and the surrounding area as the setting for 'Ivanhoe'. It still has a feeling of mystery and romance in its narrow streets.

After I approached the local senior citizens group at the Community Centre I received a letter back from the secretary ."

Letter from Conisbrough Community Association, Mrs Sheila Rigg (to Linda Waite)

"By the greatest of coincidences I personally live next to the Minney Moor area off Minney Moor Lane, and I can well imagine your interest as our village is steeped in history, much of it dormant.

The area known as Minney Moor is still a large, open space with a row of detached houses now bordering one side, running from the main A630 road down to the Castle Inn in Burcroft and thence the River Don, and on the other side is my home, with my back gate leading into Minney Moor, previosly owned by a Lady Miller who is still alive but lives in South Africa. She has left Minney Moor in trust to the local authority for use as a recreation area for residents, this it currently is, and on and in it are large outcrops of rocks with medieval connections.

Letter from David Minney

"It was one early morning in September (1996). Myself, my nephew Paul and my son Steven decided after reading your article on Minney Moor to pay it a visit on the train. We boarded the train at Rugby and had several connections to make before we would connect to the local service to Conisbrough. Paul thought it would be a good idea to ask the train guard if he might know where Minney Moor is. I thought "That's a stupid idea, why would a guard on a train to Doncaster know anything about Minney Moor". After grabbing forty winks between stations I heard the guard asking for tickets. Paul asked him if he knew anything about Minney Moor.

In a broad Yorkshire accent the guard replied, "Minney Moor, that's in Conisbrough, I used to go to school there." Unfortunately he did not know why it was so called but he did give us directions "It's not that far you can catch a bus and ask the driver to drop you off at Minney Moor."

We left the train at Conisbrough, with the guard jumping off holding up the train whilst he explained where to catch our bus. Waiting at the bus stop were two ladies who told us that Minney Moor was not far away and "young lads like you could walk it in 15 minutes." We took their advice and directions and began walking.

Fifteen minutes later with no sight of Minney Moor we had arrived at Conisbrough Castle. We found a butchers shop and asked the way to Minney Moor "One hundred yards on the left, don't blink or you'll miss it." After thirty five minutes walking and what seemed like ten miles we were finally at Minney Moor.

Minney Moor is situated in a residential area on a busy main road. Being nothing more than an overgrown field. I fail to see why this has been saved from development. Minney Moor Lane runs parallel and appears to be a private road. One lady we asked thought that it was a piece of land owned by a wealthy Minney¹ and given to the children of this parish for recreation. We also searched the records in the local history section at the library but time was running short.

We also called on Tony Greathead and he also suggested that the site was a gift from a local landlord.

With a camera full of photographs and extracts of local maps from the library it was time to call it a day. We had travelled some 150 miles by train, walked a 5 mile round trip, spoken to numerous people and still had not uncovered the secret of Minney Moor."

Linda is going to make enquiries on Lady Miller (if she exists) and if that fails perhaps enquire with the local authority.

If nothing else it looks like Linda Waite and David Minney had two good days out at Conisbrough. One things for certain, the residents certainly know now of the Minney family!

The photos in the following pages were supplied by Linda and David.

¹Lady Miller perhaps?

Oxford Dictionary Entries

In the previous article, Linda Peabody made reference to Minnie and Minny entries in the full Oxford Dictionary. I have also include those for Minning because one of the entries in the Place Names of West Riding refers to Minning Moor Lands. They are as follows;

Correspondence

I have received some very interesting letters from you of late so here are a few excerpts;

From Tod Miller, Dereham, Norfolk

"...I was very excited when I read the article in the Jan Newsletter on George Minney's assault on a policeman in 1872. I think this is my gt grandfather. The age is rightish and Gt Peter St and district seems to be their domain. His daughter, Emma Elizabeth indeed was born there 1880. All this are is known as the Devil's Acre, one of the worst slums in London. In fact the word slum was first ever used in describing the Devil's Acre by some Bishop or other. I have been finding out what I can about this area for a number of years and from what I know I would be surprised if any of the people who lived there were law abiding.

I wrote to the City Westminster Archives Centre to find out more about the case and was surprised to learn that there were no local papers until 1887. A very helpful Michael Smith searched in newspapers for St Marylebone & Paddington but no luck. I have not given up yet, if I can confirm that George is my ancestor then it will make a fascinating article.

I know there are other Minneys in Westminster & Chelsea who are no relation as far as I can tell. Also, I remember reading a book many years ago of a Minney connection with St Margarets Church, Westminster in the 1600s. I cannot recall the title but it was in Norwich Reference Library.

From Doris Blake, Kincumber, NSW, Australia

In 1917 my father Arthur Minney¹ was killed leaving mother with two babies. About three or four years after the war mother took a post at Colmworth to care for the old vicar, Mr Johnstone (I think that was his name) and his sister Mrs Samon. Mother was able to have Ben and I with her, and so we all lived at the old rectory which I think you refer to as an Ancient Manor House. I cannot recall any other large house in the area and certainly the rectory had lovely gardens.

On a trip home in 1984, my husband, my son & daughter-in-law and myself visited Colmworth, a few miles from Great Barford, and we were taken round the old stables and coach house, and also the old church next door. The bells had only recently been restored and we bought pottery mugs which were being sold in the church to raise funds. The small plaque on the side of the mug reads 'Colmworth Church Bells' 1635 Restored 1984'. My granddaughter was the first person to pull the big bell (the warden lifted her up to reach the rope). On the following Sunday we listened to them pealing out on the radio as we were then back in London. My husband has since painted a picture of Colmworth Vicarage on canvas.

We visited the rectory at Colmworth again on our last visit home two years ago but unfortunately noone was home and the church was locked.

When my mother re-married several years later she married a publican and we moved to another very old house in Riseley, The Fox and Hounds, quite a contrast to the old rectory.

'My sister-in-law Mrs May Jones (nee Minney) passed away in February last year. She was the last of the family of David Minney who kept The Old Crown pub at Great Barford. She was the last licensee before it was closed. She was buried on what would have been her 90th birthday.

I am a Minney by marriage. I and my husband are London born and married in 1941. We have one son. We moved from North London to Surrey, then to Borehamwood, Herts until my husband died 12 years ago. I then moved to Cornwall.

My husband's father was Charles Loxley Minney who came from Bedford and we often used to see his family there but I have had no connections with them for quite some years now. Charles Alfred Spencer Minney, my husband was an only son.

Minney is my maiden name and I was born at Old Harrowden¹ in 1923. Father's name was Harry. His family as far as I can remember was Annie (born at Colmworth), William, Charles Loxley, Joseph (lived and died at Torquay), Arthur and Jack.

I used to work with a Barbara Minney from Great Barford. Thought you would like grandad's memorial card (see below), it was in mum's old photo box. She was a Trueman from Cardington who before marriage lived next door to the cemetery.

My brother George had a son Kenneth who passed away many years ago but had a son & daughter who I think live at Cotton End.

I often pass through Olney on the bus and see the Minney Cycle and Radio shop. I often wonder if it could be cousins as Uncle Arthur when he left Moggerhanger went to his son's in that area.
